

The MÁIRÉAD NESBITT CELTIC VIOLIN COLLECTION is personally designed by world -renowned violinist Máiread Nesbitt, of Lord of the Dance, Celtic Woman and Rocktopia fame. These wonderful instruments are inspected by Máiread and the line consists of seven violins in all. Some named after tracks on Máiread's newest solo album Hibernia, they are; The Máiread Viennese Elite Model, Hibernia, Celtic Dawn, Raining Up, Invasion, The Butterfly and The Belle of Tipperary beginner violin.

The violins feature unsurpassed tonal and aesthetic qualities lending themselves to students and virtuosos alike. Apart from the beginner violin, the violins, are all European made and hand finished at a renowned luthier shop in New York. The complete MÁIRÉAD NESBITT CELTIC VIOLIN COLLECTION and INCLUDED deluxe European accessories, that are the Máiread Nesbitt carbon fibre braided bow with the beginner and intermediate models, the German made Dorfler brazilwood bow with the advanced models, the 'KUN' shoulder-rest, the world famous Kolstein violin rosin, shaped violin case and Thomastik- Infeld strings are available directly online at www.maireadnesbittviolin.com

The line is also available in Dublin, Ireland at Charles Byrne Musik Instrumente, in New York, USA at Samuel Kolstein and Son Ltd. and in Milwaukee, USA at Cascio Interstate Music.

For more information go to:

www.maireadnesbittviolin.com
Contact: maireadnesbittinfo@gmail.com