

MÁIRÉAD NESBITT CELTIC VIOLINIST

The Grammy and Emmy nominated artist and composer, and founding member of the global phenomenon Celtic Woman, Máiréad Nesbitt has enchanted millions of fans around the world. Featured Celtic Violinist on all 11 Celtic Woman albums each achieving #1 slot in the Billboard World Music Chart.

Cited by the New York Times as “a demon of a fiddle player”, Máiréad has two Billboard Charting solo albums in World Music, Classical Crossover, Classical and Heatseeker Charts to her credit, Rainíng Up and her new solo album Hibernia. She is also guest violinist and composer on many award winning cds with international artists.

In 2017, Máiréad also released the album Devil's Bit Sessions, charting in the Billboard World Music Charts. It explores the rich musical heritage of the Nesbitt Family as well as launched her very own Celtic Violin Collection.

A past member of the RTÉ Concert Orchestra of Ireland, Máiréad has been guest soloist with orchestras in the USA & internationally including the City of Hong Kong Chamber Orchestra, The Berne Symphony Orchestra and The Atlanta Symphony Orchestra. She has performed for four US Presidents at the White House and has performed in iconic venues worldwide including Radio City Music Hall, Carnegie Hall, Red Rocks Amphitheater and Hyde Park and most recently made her Broadway debut in Rocktopia.

Máiréad was guest soloist at Carnegie Hall Dec. 1st, 2017 with renowned artists Sibylle Szaggers Redford and the Tim Janis Ensemble for The Way of the Rain. Máiréad had the privilege of returning as guest soloist to Carnegie Hall Nov. 30th, 2018 for Christmas with Tim Janis and Special Guests.

Visit www.maireadnesbittviolin.com for more information.