

MÁIRÉAD NESBITT CELTIC VIOLINIST 2020 BIO - (SHORT)

As a Grammy and Emmy nominated artist and composer, founding member of the global phenomenon Celtic Woman, Máiréad Nesbitt has enchanted millions of fans around the world. The featured Celtic violinist on all 11 Celtic Woman albums, each album rose to the #1 slot on the Billboard World Music Chart. Máiréad is featured soloist on Disney's Tinker Bell and Tinker Bell and The Lost Treasure movies.

Cited by the New York Times as “A demon of a fiddle player”, Máiréad has two Billboard charting solo albums and her own Family album to her credit, Hibernia, Raining Up and Devil's Bit Sessions by the Nesbitt Family. Máiréad's own signature violin line and accessories are available from her website www.maireadnesbittviolin.com and selected stores in the USA.

A guest soloist with symphony orchestras worldwide in renowned venues, Máiréad made her Broadway debut in 2018 on Broadway with Rocktopia. Having performed in Carnegie Hall with Celtic Woman, Máiréad was a special guest soloist with Tim Janis at the iconic venue multiple times. Máiréad is featured soloist in a new PBS and Amazon Prime special “Celtic Lands”. This will feature on Today with Hoda and Jenna specially for St. Patrick's Day 2021.

Máiréad is very excited to launch her new Máiréad Nesbitt Jewelry Collection and TV show on global brand JTV March 2021.